

European Webinar, Wednesday 28th July 2021, 19:00 CET
 “Intentional injuries in sports. The challenge of the decade for sports medicine”

“It is time to acknowledge the threat that abuse of athletes poses to our field and take responsibility”

Webinar Activity

Speakers-Panelists

19:00 - 19:05	From Victim to Victor, the Valiant path	Welcome to Webinar and the panelists. Alert audience to explicit content and importance of taking precautions.	Dr Dora Papadopoulou, Dr Katharina Grimm - 5 minutes
19:05 - 19:07		Message	Dr. Steven Ungerleider - 2 minutes
19:10 - 19:45		Documentary “At the Heart of Gold: inside the US Gymnastics scandal”	Documentary projection - 35 minutes
19:45 - 19:55		Introduction of panelists	Dr Katharina Grimm, Dr Dora Papadopoulou - 10 minutes

Quiz - Interactions - Networking

19:55- 20:05	Inconvenient truth or reassuring lies?	Trinea Gonczar will discuss the vulnerability of (elite) athletes, unconditional trust, grooming, abuse disguised as treatment and the significance of the perpetrator being the team physician.	Trinea Gonczar - All - 10 minutes
20:05-20:15		Panel discussion: What are intentional injuries, how common are they and are there any known risk factors? What can the short and long term consequences be? Where does the sports medicine community stand currently and what is being taught in medical schools?	Dr Katharina Grimm, Dr Dora Papadopoulou, Dr. Katie Marino - 10 minutes
20:15 -20:30		Q&A with audience including the viewpoint from the young generation of sports medicine physicians, inviting perspectives from different countries.	Professor Anca Ionescu, Dr Katie Marino, all speakers -15 minutes
20:30 -20:35		Closure. What is next for EFSMA and the wider SEM community? What research could be beneficial?	Dr Katharina Grimm, Dr Dora Papadopoulou - 5 minutes

Rendezvous for the next event and walk the talk